

4.0 Nominations and Elections

4.1 Nominations Committee

The Nominating Committee is a Standing Committee of the House of Delegates with the authority to determine the slate of candidates for the ONA Board of Directors, Nominating Committee and ONA Membership Assembly Representatives.

In accordance with ARTICLE IV, Section 4, a. Standing Committees of ONA House of Delegates, the Nominating Committee is comprised of six members elected by the membership. Three members being elected each year for a two-year term. The Chair of the Nominating Committee is determined by highest number of votes.

The committee will work with Region Presidents. ONA BOD and CEO to identify candidates to serve in the appropriate positions for the slate of candidates. One of the most critical factors committee members must consider is developing a diverse slate including - race, ethnicity, gender, geographic location, and area of practice and specialty.

4.2 Nominations Process

Candidates for office meet established qualifications and shall give complete a consent to serve form (See Appendix page 35) prior to being placed on the ballot. Candidates for President, President-Elect, Secretary/Treasurer, and ANA Membership Assembly Representatives must be current ONA/ANA members.

The Nominating Committee will review each candidate's consent to serve form and determine if the candidate meets the qualifications. If a candidate indicates more than one Board of Director's position, a committee member will reach out to the candidate for an interview. After the interview the committee member will report the candidate's priorities to the committee with recommendations as to the candidate's intentions and abilities. If the candidate is unavailable for an interview the committee may determine the candidate's lack of ability to serve. The Nominating Committee has the authority to determine if a candidate meets the qualifications to be selected to be slated on the ballot.

A member of the Nominating Committee may be a candidate for an ONA office provided the member consents to serve if elected. The slate of candidates shall be approved by the BOD and be published in ONA publications such as the website and The Oklahoma Nurse.

Once the candidate slate has been determined by the Nominating Committee all individuals that submitted a "consent to serve" will be notified in writing as to their placement on the ballot.

4.3 Elections
